Dear Mr. Rodriguez,

Thank you very much for your kind letter and the introduction of the documentary project "Jew'els of Spain" which you are setting out to realize.

I am certain that this documentary shall be a significant contribution to the understanding of the plight, but also of the rich cultural heritage of the Sephardic Communities in Europe. I am equally sure that the scope and complexity of this project could produce an enduring and important document about the history of a large community in Europe and the large contribution of the Sephardic communities to the culture of Europe.

We would hope that you inform us about the progress of this project and I wish you all the best in realizing this series and making it available to the public.

Yours sincerely,

Paul Jenewein
